

Associate Attorney

MURPHYROSEN<sup>LLP</sup> • Full-time • Santa Monica, California, United States (On-site)

Company Description

Murphy Rosen LLP is a business and commercial litigation law firm that represents a wide range of clients, including Fortune 500 companies and sole proprietorships. Founded by Paul Murphy and David Rosen, the firm delivers high-quality legal services that are both effective and cost-efficient. Many of the firm's attorneys have experience from some of the largest law firms in the country and are recognized experts in their respective fields. Located in Santa Monica, CA, Murphy Rosen combines expertise with a commitment to client success.

Role Description

This is a full-time on-site position. The attorney will be responsible for participating in all aspects of business litigation, including: drafting and reviewing briefs and pleadings; analyzing complex legal issues; drafting and responding to written discovery; taking depositions; attending hearing; and preparing cases for trial. The attorney will be expected to provide legal support on a variety of litigation matters, and collaborate with attorneys and clients to develop case strategies. The role requires exceptional research, writing, and communication skills, as well as a thorough understanding of legal principles and procedures.

Qualifications

- Solid foundation in business litigation and the development of litigation strategies
- Prior experience managing cases
- Prior experience taking depositions and arguing motions
- Exceptional writing skills
- Strong research and analytical skills
- Excellent communication skills
- Active membership in the California State Bar
- Ability to work collaboratively in a fast-paced, team-oriented environment
- 6+ years of litigation experience preferred

To apply, please email resume to:

David Rosen
Partner, Murphy Rosen LLP
drosen@murphyrosen.com